IN THE HEART OF MONUMENT VALLEY &

BECOME PART OF THE HISTORY AND GRANDEUR OF MONUMENT VALLEY

A visit to Goulding's trading post brings you to the very heart of Monument Valley, the eighth wonder of the world.

The original trading post (1923) still stands, selling a wide variety of authentic Navajo, Hopi and Zuni rugs, jewelry, baskets and other Indian crafts.

Here, the classic John Ford film "Stagecoach" was filmed in 1939. Since then, the area has been a shooting site for countless westerns and other movies.

Here, too, daily Navajo life and culture goes on much as it has since the turn of the century.

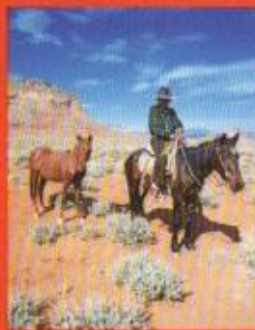

Make Goulding's Trading Post and Lodge your home base for exploring and enjoying the wonders of Monument Valley.

ENJOY COMFORTABLE LODGING AND INCREDIBLE TOURS AT GOULDING'S

Modern Rooms, Great Dining and A Grand View

Every guest room at Goulding's Lodge overlooks the vast panorama of Monument Valley beyond a windowed terrace or patio.

The dining room offers similar views and an excellent, reasonably priced American menu featuring Southwestern, Mexican and Navajo specialties.

Goulding's KOA RV Park and Campground

For RV'ers and campers, the park and campground make an ideal base station for touring Monument Valley and for enjoying Lake Powell from San Juan Marina.

Forty-eight spaces are available with full hook-ups. A service station, laundry, grocery store and car wash are conveniently nearby. As in the Lodge, Monument Valley views are spectacular.

Tour a Monument Valley that You Never See in Magazines

On Goulding's four-wheel drive tour, you will see pictographs and petroglyphs, natural stone arches and windows of rock; and of course, the famous, 1,000 foot high monoliths of Monument Valley.

You will also see small pueblo-style cliff dwellings built by the Ancient Ones; and abandoned around 1250 A.D.

You will pass through the area in which Navajos eluded Kit Carson and his army in 1864; and you will step back in time as you see today's Monument Valley Navajos herding their sheep and goats, or weaving magnificent rugs.

Your Navajo guide will stop frequently to help you capture the photographer's bounty present in Monument Valley.

ON THE SHORES OF LAKE POWELL

EXPLORE THE MAJESTY AND SERENITY OF LAKE POWELL

With more than 2,000 miles of shore line (more than the West Coast of the U.S.), Lake Powell has emerged as one of the premier water recreation areas in the United States.

While houseboating has long been the leading Lake Powell attraction, recreational possibilities are virtually limitless. They range from fishing, hiking, camping and exploring...to water skiing, para sailing, photography, and... well, you name it.

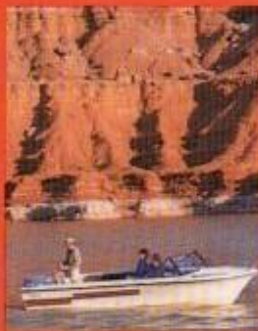

Despite all there is to do and see, the vast reaches of Lake Powell also offer a solitude and serenity that is impossible to describe.

And nowhere on Lake Powell is this solitude and serenity greater than on the "San Juan River Arm". This very beautiful and little disturbed area is convenient to boaters for the first time through the new San Juan Marina.

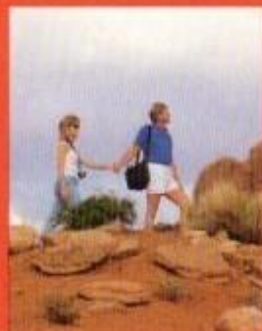

Make San Juan Marina your home base for exploring and enjoying the wonders of Lake Powell.
